A Family Apart - Manchester University

New York City in the mid-1800's is a rough place to raise six children alone. When the widowed Mrs. Kelly realizes that she can't keep her children from starving, or from breaking the law, she makes the agonizing decision to send them west on the Orphan Train. At least they'll be raised by families who can care for them.

ORPHAN TRAIN

Mrs. Kelly makes the ultimate sacrifice of love and sends them west on the orphan train to find better lives with new families. The children, especially thirteen-year-old Frances Mary, feel an overwhelming sense of betrayal and abandonment.
