I can honestly say that I am not totally sold on Exile by Rebecca Lim. This maybe in part because I've never read the previous book Mercy, when I started Exile I was unaware that there was even another book that started the series. In my past experience of accidently reading books out of order I've never been as lost as I was reading Exile.

Exile (Mercy, Book 2) by Rebecca Lim - eBook | HarperCollins

I personally really liked 'Mercy' by Rebecca Lim. It was something different to what I was expecting. Mercy was someone that I really appreciated as a character, that actually seemed like a real person (or there lack of) and didn't crap on like most of them do. After a super good ending, I had to read the 'Exile'. It was pretty good as well.

Mercy by Rebecca Lim is set in the fictional town of Paradise. Rebecca's an Aussie author and while the book does have a bit of an Aussie feel to it, it's never acknowledged as being the country where the book is set. Mercy is a fallen angel. She's been exiled from heaven due to an incident but she can't remember what happened.
