he dry landscape populated with low scrub and distant cinder cones rolled for miles in every direction. The sun beat down from a cloudless sky, but I left my jacket on; once inside the cave, the temperature would be chilly. Looking down the ladder leading through a narrow opening in the earth, I wondered if I should have brought a helmet. As if to confirm, a sign nearby rendered a pictorial ...

Emily Whitman's Radiant Darkness is a fascinating, complex version of Persephone, the goddess Demeter's daughter, who is courted by Hades, Lord of the Dead, and ends up underground for half the year. Whitman turns the story into a struggle between parental control and young desire.

Radiant Darkness - The Barnes & Noble Review

Radiant Mode is meant for players who want to keep their playtime low, but it is still designed to give the player just as much challenge as Darkest Mode. It is intended to take less time overall to complete than normal ("Darkest") mode. The mode is still challenging — monsters have the same stats and nothing about permadeath has changed.
